DEFENDANT'S FORM NO. 1: ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF ADVISEMENT OF RIGHTS
THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF COLORADO*VS*BARG, ERIC ANTHONY*YOU THE DEFENDANT, ARE ADVISED AS FOLLOWS:

- I. You need make no statement. Any statement made can and may be used against you.
- II. You have the right to be represented in this Court by a lawyer of your own choice. If you are indigent, that is, if you cannot afford to hire your own lawyer, you have the right, as provided by law or applicable rule of criminal procedure, to request the appointment of a lawyer or to consult with the public defender before any further proceedings are held. If you do request a postponement, the Court will advise you specifically of the new time and of the terms and conditions upon which your postponements is granted.
- III. You have the right to have a copy of the charges which have been filed against you. The Court will explain the nature of the charge or charges in detail and will also inform you of the possible penalties and the possible places of incarceration which can be imposed if you enter a plea of guilty, or if you are found guilty of the charges against you.
- IV. Any plea you make must be voluntary on your part and not the result of undue influence or coercion on the part of anyone.
- V. If you are incarcerated, in jail, for a bailable offense, you have the right to bail and the Court will advise you as to the amount of bail that has been set.
- VI. You have the right to have your case tried by a jury. In order to exercise that right you should first enter a plea of not guilty. The following rules will then determine whether your case will be tried by a jury or by the court.
 - a.) If the maximum penalty which the Court may impose for any of the charges against you does not exceed six (6) months imprisonment or a fine of five hundred dollars ($500) and you wish your case tried by a jury, you must make a demand in writing for a jury trial within ten (10) days after arraignment or entry of a plea and at the same time pay a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25). The jury, if you demand one, will consist of three (3) members, unless you demand a greater number, but in no event will there be more than six (6) jurors (County Court) or twelve (12) jurors (District Court). If you fail to make a demand for a jury in writing and pay the jury fee within the time provided, and the jury fee is not waived by the Court, your right to a trial by jury will be considered as waived, and your case will be tried by the court.
 - b.) If the maximum penalty which the Court may impose for any one charge against you exceeds six (6) months imprisonment or a fine of five hundred dollars ($500), your case will be tried to a jury unless you waive your right to a jury in writing.
- VII. You are now presumed to be innocent of any offense, and you will continue to be presumed innocent until you are proven guilty of the offense charged against you beyond a reasonable doubt.
- VIII. You have a right to plead not guilty and a penalty will not be made more severe simply because you plead not guilty and are subsequently found guilty. The charge, or charges, are mere accusations and are not evidence.
- IX. Whether you plead guilty or not guilty, you will be under no obligation to testify or make any statement. You do, however, have the right, and you will be given the opportunity, to testify in your own behalf and to make any statement which you desire to be considered. If you elect not to testify or to make any statement, the fact of your silence will not be considered against you.
- X. You have the right, and you will be given the opportunity, to present witnesses in your behalf. The Court will subpoena, without expense to you, any witness whom you designate, but you will be liable for the expense of witness fees, unless you prove you are unable to pay such expenses.
- XI. If you believe that a decision made by this Court is incorrect you have the right to appeal that decision. To perfect your right of appeal, you should file a notice of appeal within forty-five (45) days (District Court) or Thirty (30) days (County Court) after entry of judgment by this Court.
- XII. If you are charged with a felony, you have the right to demand and receive a preliminary hearing within a reasonable time to determine whether probable cause exists to believe that the offense charged was committed by you. You must file a written motion requesting a preliminary hearing within ten (10) days after you are advised in Court that you are charged with a commission of a felony.
- XIII. You are advised that it is a condition of any bail you post that you are restrained from harassing, molesting, intimidating, retaliating against or tampering with any witness or victim of the acts charged as crimes. Violation of this order is punishable by contempt.

I HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGE that the foregoing advisement of rights was given to me by the Court and I do fully understand the matters herein set forth.
